

Word of the Lord - 6/25/16

(As I was seeking the Lord on June 25th, 2016, I received this powerful and encouraging word of the Lord. I pray it ministers to your heart just as it did mine.)

There is a stirring currently taking place that is causing havoc in the enemy's camp. Great disturbances and disruptions are taking place, even now, says the Lord, and these disruptions will cause much chaos and confusion within the enemy ranks.

For I am moving effectively, even in the midst of great darkness, I am moving, I am working, to orchestrate and bring forth My purpose and My plans.

Though the enemy has come to destroy and tear down, I have come to bring life and restoration to all who are willing to receive it.

For the forces of hell will not prevail against My purpose and My plans, says the Lord.

Though it seems that the enemy has had the upper hand, I am moving, I am working, I am aligning, I am calling forth those who are willing to rise up from their ash heaps of defeat and move themselves into position.....for I will have a people who will not bow their knees to the Baals of this age. I will have an army, of those whose hearts are turned towards Me, and they will not be ashamed nor will they be afraid to stand firm against the forces of hell in this present evil age. These will not be afraid to use the authority that I have given to them.

There is great power and glory released when My people walk in and move in the authority that I have given to them.

Many have been defeated because of their own disobedience, rebellion and unbelief. I have not called you to be defeated. I have called you to live victoriously, always triumphant in everything that I have called you to do and be.

My power and My glory is sufficient to sustain you and carry you into new realms of visitation and transformation. For I am moving, I am working, even now, to bring about My purpose and My plans.

Though what you have been seeing in the natural looks devastating and evil, there is a higher realm of movement by My Spirit. The wind of My Spirit is already moving again and this wind will not decrease but it will surely increase.

Many of those who have been weary and have lost their strength will be revived and strengthened in this season. For fresh winds of My Spirit are blowing again. There will be a great reviving of those who have lost hope and have fallen by the wayside.

Much deliverance and healing will take place in this season. For many have been oppressed and afflicted, but I will cause the chains of bondage and affliction to be broken off and fall away in this season. Great deliverance is coming. Many who have been afflicted shall be healed as they look to Me, says the Lord. They will see that I am Jehovah-Rapha, the Lord who heals.

Much restoration is coming, says the Lord. Many who have experienced great turmoil and upheaval in their minds, lives and families will experience My peace as I move them into new realms and dimensions of My glory. Walls of resistance that have been built up around hardened hearts will begin to crumble as My presence and My peace come and totally overwhelm and set these captives free.

Those who turn their eyes toward Me, will begin to see what I have made available to them and hope will be restored within them.

Many will be delivered from spirits of suicide as they begin to move in My direction. They will see Me move and hope and life will be restored unto them. The enemy will be defeated in this area of their lives and many who once thought about taking their lives will become those who will release words of life and deliverance to others.....and it will be much like a domino effect as one gets delivered and then ministers life and deliverance to someone else and then they, in turn, also go and minister life and deliverance to others.

My power and My glory shall intensify in this season and there will be tremendous moves of My Spirit as My people position themselves to seek My face. For I have promised that I would pour out My Spirit upon all flesh in these Last Days and I will certainly do all that I have spoken and said.

In the midst of great suffering and persecution, there will be great revival and moves of My Spirit unprecedented from previous times of outpouring.

I'm restoring hope to those who have lost sight of who I am and what I'm doing in this season. This is not a time to draw back in unbelief and complacency, but this is a time to draw closer and lay hold of Me, says the Lord. For I Am who I say I Am and I will certainly do all that I have promised to do. :-)
